

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF MONTANA
GREAT FALLS DIVISION

IN RE: JEREMIAH WIBERG

CV-24-39-GF-BMM

ORDER

Jeremiah Wiberg has been a defendant in the United States District Court of Montana and is now incarcerated at the United States Penitentiary in Leavenworth, Kansas. He has filed a document that appears to be a civil rights complaint, related to his conditions of confinement there. (Doc. 1.)

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391, venue for a civil action brought against a defendant who is an officer and employee of the United States is appropriate: 1.) where the defendant resides, 2.) where a substantial part of the events that give rise to the claim occurred, or 3.) where the plaintiff resides. 28 U.S.C. § 1391(e). The District of Montana is not the proper venue for Wiberg's action.

Accordingly, the Court issues the following:

ORDER

1. Wiberg's filings are DISMISSED, without prejudice. Wiberg may refile them in the proper venue.

DATED this 30th day of April, 2024.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, reading "Brian Morris". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Brian" and last name "Morris" clearly distinguishable.

Brian Morris, Chief District Judge
United States District Court